STATINTL ✓ 7. [redacted] Telephone call from [redacted] to [redacted] on 11 Aug 1968, to say that [redacted] had been written rejection letter.

STATINTL ✓ 8. Received call from Miss Cron, office of Rep. Carroll D. Kearns, (D., Pa.), inquiring about case of [redacted] who, she said, had received a telegram and come down from Meadville, Pa., and asked to fill out lengthy papers, etc., only to be told that the job for which he had been considered was being filled by a woman. STATINTL Learned from Personnel that the telegram --(which [redacted] had ordered sent on 4 Aug)--(had been sent on 11 Aug to his home in Hyattsville, where it was forwarded STATINTL to Meadville. [redacted] came in yesterday -- 9 days later, and was told that the job for which he was originally considered was being filled, but that he would be considered for another. Called the Congressman's office and, in the absence of Miss STATINTL Cron, spoke to Miss Ryan. Explained about the telegram and the second job possibility, adding that [redacted] was in again this afternoon and seemed satisfied with the second prospect.
